The Fund for I-House
Proceeds from the annual Celebration and Awards Gala benefit The Fund for I-House, a resource that provides life-changing scholarships, inspirational programming, and crucial maintenance to our historic home. Your support of this year’s Gala will help ensure current and future residents are able to live, learn, and grow under the dome, furthering the I-House mission of fostering intercultural respect, understanding, lifelong friendships, and leadership skills to promote a more peaceful world.

Gala Highlights

• A festive red carpet entrance where you will be greeted by I-House Residents from around the globe
• Welcome address by Chancellor Carol Christ
• Presentation of awards

The Global Ambassador of Peace and Public Service Award will be presented to Irving Tragen

The Young Alumni Initiative Award will be presented to WattTime

• Discussion on inclusive global leadership and high-performing teams

A meaningful discourse on inclusion with Chancellor Christ, Irving Tragen, and the WattTime team moderated by Jason Patent, Director of the Robertson Center for Intercultural Leadership

The Robertson Center for Intercultural Leadership (CIL) at UC Berkeley is a center of excellence for training and research to advance leadership, understanding, and collaboration across cultures. For more information visit cil.berkeley.edu.
