It is essential to enhance communication skills as we organize the solid team between US and Japan. In order to foster team spirit 咸臨丸 “Kanrinmaru” (the First Ship made it to San Francisco from Japan with Samurai spirits), this workshop approaches to build these elements ① Strengthening power of ideas proposed by a cross-cultural imagination ② Enriching cooperativeness as a group work ③ Strong leaderships toward crisis

Workshop Schedule

- Day 1: October 27 (Thursday)
  13:00 – 15:00 UC Berkeley Tour/Lab Visits *Group Campus Tour starts at 13:00.
  16:00 – 18:00 Symposium on “Japan After FUKUSHIMA: Nuclear Energy Policy, Reconstruction, and Politics”, Plenary Lecture/Panel Discussion @ UCB, Center for Japanese Studies
  Moderator: Prof. Steven Vogel Center Director, University of California Berkeley, Center for Japanese Study
  Plenary Lecturer: Prof. Hideaki Takabe Ph.D, Osaka University
  "Proposals for Future: Starting from Inconvenient Truth after FUKUSHIMA"
  Lectures: Profs. Goto, Fukushima University
  18:00-20:00 Welcome Reception

- Day 2: October 28 (Friday)
  Silicon Valley Tour/Company Visits
  Stanford University, Palo Alto Research Center, SunBridge Global Venture Habitat@Plag&Play

- Day 3: October 29 (Saturday)
  Free time (Group Communication)

- Day 4: October 30 (Sunday)
  10:00–11:30 Opening Speech (Mr. Mark Chandler) • Lectures (Mr. Scott McNeil, Mr. Vik Kasyhap)
  11:30–13:00 Lunch
  13:00–16:30 Group Discussion
  17:00–18:00 VOICE from TOHOKU (TV Broadcasting—Japan time: Oct 31 9:00-10:00)

- Day 5: October 31 (Monday)
  10:00–11:30 Group Discussion
11:30 - 13:00  Lunch
13:00 - 15:30  Final Group Discussion (wrapping up with summaries)
   (Students are required to make PPTs to present their summaries within 30-40min)
15:30 - 17:10  Group Presentation
   (4 groups × 25min [Presentation 10min, Q&A 15min], Total 100min)
17:20 - 17:50  Evaluations/Comments
17:50 - 18:00  Closing and Graduation
18:00 - 20:00  Dinner (Halloween Party!)

Day 6・Day 7:  November 1 (Tuesday) ・ November 2 (Wednesday)
Networking by visiting Labs and Companies (Students need to arrange appointments for meetings by themselves)