Yearbook
University of California,
Berkeley
Fall 2010- Spring 2011

Dear Residents,

Once a dream, the 2010-2011 I-House Yearbook is now reality. Congratulations on your achievement. The pictures and prose of the yearbook usher forth memories of a special year and I am grateful to the authors for this achievement.

From my perch on the second floor I am constantly in thrall of our Residents' vibrancy and uniqueness. Each meal in the Dining Hall is a buffet of knowledge. Two weeks ago I had my intellect elevated by Residents discussing, variously, the Mona Lisa, laws of probability and voting behavior, computing the morality of choice, and please pass the salt. That was just one lunch.

Because of you I-House is a place where friendships replace stereotypes and limits yield to growth. One resident neatly captured the essence of I-House: "Never have I slept so little yet been so awake as my year in I-House." Thank you for making I-House memorable.

With Regards and Respect,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Mas", followed by a long horizontal flourish.
